

WATCH OUT FOR CULLOM.

ILLINOIS EXPECTED TO START HIS RUN TO-MORROW.

Col. Ethan Allen, one of Uncle Shelby's Champions in the East, talks about the Senator's strength with Conservative Republicans who won't risk McKinley.

The friends of Senator Cullom of Illinois are looking with a great deal of interest to the outcome of the Illinois Republican State Convention to be held to-morrow. Although not much has been heard up to this time of Mr. Cullom's candidacy for the Presidential nomination, those interested in it have persisted in keeping him in the field, and they have strong hope that if his State endorses him to-morrow in a substantial way his chances for concentrating in his favor the anti-McKinley elements in the event of a contest in the National Convention will be excellent. A desperate fight has been made by the McKinley men to capture the Illinois Convention to-morrow, but they have been defeated. A desperate fight has been made by the McKinley men to capture the Illinois Convention to-morrow, but they have been defeated.

Col. Ethan Allen of this city, one of Senator Cullom's most active supporters in the East, said yesterday to a Sun reporter:

"I base my reasons for advocating the nomination of Senator Cullom upon very broad grounds of party interest and national interest. I think there has never before been a time when the country needs more conscientious and grave deliberation by Republicans in the choice of their Presidential candidate in order equally to do the right thing and avoid great mistakes.

We might elect McKinley, but it would be a headlong plunge to nominate him. It would be harder to elect McKinley than any other man but Harrison. Harrison was the one man we could not elect four years ago, and he probably is the one man we could not win now. McKinley would be well nigh as heavy a load to carry. Still experience teaches us no less a lesson. McKinley has been elected by a Republican party in the East, and we calmly provoke a third disaster.

"When the McKinley bill, so styled, was first made law, the country was swept by Democratic victory in protest. Democratic victory almost unparalleled at that time, by anything that had ever happened in past history. On the same issue of the McKinley tariff Cleveland laid Harrison to rest in 1892. Harrison, adding personal unpopularity to an unpopular platform and party record. Who but blind politicians could so instantly have changed their minds? Another trial now? The voters to-day clearly do not favor the McKinley scheme of excessive protection any more than they did when they thundered their No twice successfully.

"McKinley, unfortunately for himself, has the character of an extremist, and such men don't win before a conservative people. Henry Clay was such a candidate, and nobody will claim that McKinley compares with him in personal popularity. Yet the voters deliberately rejected Clay because expressly his position regarding the tariff was far in advance of public opinion. The same delusion is being set out to keep Mr. Blaine from the Presidency. The balance of power is held by men of moderate notions, as all our elections demonstrate. The citizen who stands to-day upon the dividing line between the McKinley and the Blaine camps is rather disposed to give the Republicans another chance, if promising a reduction of duties. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff.

"McKinley, unfortunately for himself, has the character of an extremist, and such men don't win before a conservative people. Henry Clay was such a candidate, and nobody will claim that McKinley compares with him in personal popularity. Yet the voters deliberately rejected Clay because expressly his position regarding the tariff was far in advance of public opinion. The same delusion is being set out to keep Mr. Blaine from the Presidency. The balance of power is held by men of moderate notions, as all our elections demonstrate. The citizen who stands to-day upon the dividing line between the McKinley and the Blaine camps is rather disposed to give the Republicans another chance, if promising a reduction of duties. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff.

"McKinley, unfortunately for himself, has the character of an extremist, and such men don't win before a conservative people. Henry Clay was such a candidate, and nobody will claim that McKinley compares with him in personal popularity. Yet the voters deliberately rejected Clay because expressly his position regarding the tariff was far in advance of public opinion. The same delusion is being set out to keep Mr. Blaine from the Presidency. The balance of power is held by men of moderate notions, as all our elections demonstrate. The citizen who stands to-day upon the dividing line between the McKinley and the Blaine camps is rather disposed to give the Republicans another chance, if promising a reduction of duties. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff.

"McKinley, unfortunately for himself, has the character of an extremist, and such men don't win before a conservative people. Henry Clay was such a candidate, and nobody will claim that McKinley compares with him in personal popularity. Yet the voters deliberately rejected Clay because expressly his position regarding the tariff was far in advance of public opinion. The same delusion is being set out to keep Mr. Blaine from the Presidency. The balance of power is held by men of moderate notions, as all our elections demonstrate. The citizen who stands to-day upon the dividing line between the McKinley and the Blaine camps is rather disposed to give the Republicans another chance, if promising a reduction of duties. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff.

"McKinley, unfortunately for himself, has the character of an extremist, and such men don't win before a conservative people. Henry Clay was such a candidate, and nobody will claim that McKinley compares with him in personal popularity. Yet the voters deliberately rejected Clay because expressly his position regarding the tariff was far in advance of public opinion. The same delusion is being set out to keep Mr. Blaine from the Presidency. The balance of power is held by men of moderate notions, as all our elections demonstrate. The citizen who stands to-day upon the dividing line between the McKinley and the Blaine camps is rather disposed to give the Republicans another chance, if promising a reduction of duties. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff.

"McKinley, unfortunately for himself, has the character of an extremist, and such men don't win before a conservative people. Henry Clay was such a candidate, and nobody will claim that McKinley compares with him in personal popularity. Yet the voters deliberately rejected Clay because expressly his position regarding the tariff was far in advance of public opinion. The same delusion is being set out to keep Mr. Blaine from the Presidency. The balance of power is held by men of moderate notions, as all our elections demonstrate. The citizen who stands to-day upon the dividing line between the McKinley and the Blaine camps is rather disposed to give the Republicans another chance, if promising a reduction of duties. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff.

"McKinley, unfortunately for himself, has the character of an extremist, and such men don't win before a conservative people. Henry Clay was such a candidate, and nobody will claim that McKinley compares with him in personal popularity. Yet the voters deliberately rejected Clay because expressly his position regarding the tariff was far in advance of public opinion. The same delusion is being set out to keep Mr. Blaine from the Presidency. The balance of power is held by men of moderate notions, as all our elections demonstrate. The citizen who stands to-day upon the dividing line between the McKinley and the Blaine camps is rather disposed to give the Republicans another chance, if promising a reduction of duties. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff.

"McKinley, unfortunately for himself, has the character of an extremist, and such men don't win before a conservative people. Henry Clay was such a candidate, and nobody will claim that McKinley compares with him in personal popularity. Yet the voters deliberately rejected Clay because expressly his position regarding the tariff was far in advance of public opinion. The same delusion is being set out to keep Mr. Blaine from the Presidency. The balance of power is held by men of moderate notions, as all our elections demonstrate. The citizen who stands to-day upon the dividing line between the McKinley and the Blaine camps is rather disposed to give the Republicans another chance, if promising a reduction of duties. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff.

"McKinley, unfortunately for himself, has the character of an extremist, and such men don't win before a conservative people. Henry Clay was such a candidate, and nobody will claim that McKinley compares with him in personal popularity. Yet the voters deliberately rejected Clay because expressly his position regarding the tariff was far in advance of public opinion. The same delusion is being set out to keep Mr. Blaine from the Presidency. The balance of power is held by men of moderate notions, as all our elections demonstrate. The citizen who stands to-day upon the dividing line between the McKinley and the Blaine camps is rather disposed to give the Republicans another chance, if promising a reduction of duties. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff.

"McKinley, unfortunately for himself, has the character of an extremist, and such men don't win before a conservative people. Henry Clay was such a candidate, and nobody will claim that McKinley compares with him in personal popularity. Yet the voters deliberately rejected Clay because expressly his position regarding the tariff was far in advance of public opinion. The same delusion is being set out to keep Mr. Blaine from the Presidency. The balance of power is held by men of moderate notions, as all our elections demonstrate. The citizen who stands to-day upon the dividing line between the McKinley and the Blaine camps is rather disposed to give the Republicans another chance, if promising a reduction of duties. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff.

"McKinley, unfortunately for himself, has the character of an extremist, and such men don't win before a conservative people. Henry Clay was such a candidate, and nobody will claim that McKinley compares with him in personal popularity. Yet the voters deliberately rejected Clay because expressly his position regarding the tariff was far in advance of public opinion. The same delusion is being set out to keep Mr. Blaine from the Presidency. The balance of power is held by men of moderate notions, as all our elections demonstrate. The citizen who stands to-day upon the dividing line between the McKinley and the Blaine camps is rather disposed to give the Republicans another chance, if promising a reduction of duties. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff.

"McKinley, unfortunately for himself, has the character of an extremist, and such men don't win before a conservative people. Henry Clay was such a candidate, and nobody will claim that McKinley compares with him in personal popularity. Yet the voters deliberately rejected Clay because expressly his position regarding the tariff was far in advance of public opinion. The same delusion is being set out to keep Mr. Blaine from the Presidency. The balance of power is held by men of moderate notions, as all our elections demonstrate. The citizen who stands to-day upon the dividing line between the McKinley and the Blaine camps is rather disposed to give the Republicans another chance, if promising a reduction of duties. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff.

"McKinley, unfortunately for himself, has the character of an extremist, and such men don't win before a conservative people. Henry Clay was such a candidate, and nobody will claim that McKinley compares with him in personal popularity. Yet the voters deliberately rejected Clay because expressly his position regarding the tariff was far in advance of public opinion. The same delusion is being set out to keep Mr. Blaine from the Presidency. The balance of power is held by men of moderate notions, as all our elections demonstrate. The citizen who stands to-day upon the dividing line between the McKinley and the Blaine camps is rather disposed to give the Republicans another chance, if promising a reduction of duties. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff.

"McKinley, unfortunately for himself, has the character of an extremist, and such men don't win before a conservative people. Henry Clay was such a candidate, and nobody will claim that McKinley compares with him in personal popularity. Yet the voters deliberately rejected Clay because expressly his position regarding the tariff was far in advance of public opinion. The same delusion is being set out to keep Mr. Blaine from the Presidency. The balance of power is held by men of moderate notions, as all our elections demonstrate. The citizen who stands to-day upon the dividing line between the McKinley and the Blaine camps is rather disposed to give the Republicans another chance, if promising a reduction of duties. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff.

"McKinley, unfortunately for himself, has the character of an extremist, and such men don't win before a conservative people. Henry Clay was such a candidate, and nobody will claim that McKinley compares with him in personal popularity. Yet the voters deliberately rejected Clay because expressly his position regarding the tariff was far in advance of public opinion. The same delusion is being set out to keep Mr. Blaine from the Presidency. The balance of power is held by men of moderate notions, as all our elections demonstrate. The citizen who stands to-day upon the dividing line between the McKinley and the Blaine camps is rather disposed to give the Republicans another chance, if promising a reduction of duties. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff.

"McKinley, unfortunately for himself, has the character of an extremist, and such men don't win before a conservative people. Henry Clay was such a candidate, and nobody will claim that McKinley compares with him in personal popularity. Yet the voters deliberately rejected Clay because expressly his position regarding the tariff was far in advance of public opinion. The same delusion is being set out to keep Mr. Blaine from the Presidency. The balance of power is held by men of moderate notions, as all our elections demonstrate. The citizen who stands to-day upon the dividing line between the McKinley and the Blaine camps is rather disposed to give the Republicans another chance, if promising a reduction of duties. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff.

"McKinley, unfortunately for himself, has the character of an extremist, and such men don't win before a conservative people. Henry Clay was such a candidate, and nobody will claim that McKinley compares with him in personal popularity. Yet the voters deliberately rejected Clay because expressly his position regarding the tariff was far in advance of public opinion. The same delusion is being set out to keep Mr. Blaine from the Presidency. The balance of power is held by men of moderate notions, as all our elections demonstrate. The citizen who stands to-day upon the dividing line between the McKinley and the Blaine camps is rather disposed to give the Republicans another chance, if promising a reduction of duties. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff.

"McKinley, unfortunately for himself, has the character of an extremist, and such men don't win before a conservative people. Henry Clay was such a candidate, and nobody will claim that McKinley compares with him in personal popularity. Yet the voters deliberately rejected Clay because expressly his position regarding the tariff was far in advance of public opinion. The same delusion is being set out to keep Mr. Blaine from the Presidency. The balance of power is held by men of moderate notions, as all our elections demonstrate. The citizen who stands to-day upon the dividing line between the McKinley and the Blaine camps is rather disposed to give the Republicans another chance, if promising a reduction of duties. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff. If the McKinley bill is passed, it will stiffen his resistance to the tariff.

HARRIS APPEAL.

To Be Heard at Albany April 26—Some of Last Sunday's Arrests.

The Court of Appeals will hear arguments on April 30 on the appeal in the Harrison liquor tax case. The court will then take a recess for two weeks. Joseph H. Clifton will argue the appeal in behalf of the brewers who are behind Saloonkeeper Elnafed, who brought it, and Attorney-General Hancock and Julius M. Mayer will appear for the Board of Excise. April 30 is the last day in office for Attorney Mayer, and he said yesterday that it was the remotest of cruelty which compelled him to devote it to delivering his own official funeral oration.

Special Deputy Excise Commissioner Hilliard sent out his corps of special excise agents yesterday to make investigation in the case of all the applications for liquor tax certificates that have been filed with him where the applicants have already engaged in the business. Applicants who propose to open new places will have to wait. Only a few applicants have been filed, and none of the old dives or dive keepers are on the list.

Many persons have been trying to get licenses from the old Excise Board for new places, going to all the bother for the right to sell for a few days on the assumption that when they go to Special Deputy Hilliard to get a certificate they will not have to present the consent of property owners in the neighborhood of their saloons. They have been informed that that exemption applies to places that were regularly licensed on March 23, the day when the law became law.

The old Excise Board is still kept very busy with the new liquor law. It is now in the hands of the Board to give before tax certificates can be obtained. They issued 100 licenses of this kind yesterday.

Two women arrested before Recorder Giff, in the general session yesterday, for violations of the Excise law, had peculiar stories to tell. Mary Williamson, who keeps a small oyster saloon in West Third street, had been arrested by Policeman McMillin of the East Fifth street station, who is known as the "farmer cop." She had been drinking beer at the saloon without a license. She said that the "farmer cop" entered her oyster saloon and bought a drink. She said that he had been drinking beer at the saloon and had not violated any law, and asked for a speedy trial. The Recorder set the case for trial on Wednesday.

The other case was that of Lizzie Daly of 225 West Forty-third street. She was arrested for violating the Excise law by selling beer at the saloon. She was charged with selling beer at the saloon. She was charged with selling beer at the saloon. She was charged with selling beer at the saloon.

The Elizabeth street police caught Daniel Sullivan and Henry Lynch, two of ex-Assemblyman Sullivan's henchmen, selling beer at the legal saloon shortly after 12 o'clock Sunday night. They had been selling beer at the saloon. They had been selling beer at the saloon. They had been selling beer at the saloon.

Thomas Zilber, a bartender in a saloon at 100 West Third street, was arrested by Policemen Kelly and O'Connor on Sunday. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon.

Mr. Zilber, a bartender in a saloon at 100 West Third street, was arrested by Policemen Kelly and O'Connor on Sunday. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon.

Mr. Zilber, a bartender in a saloon at 100 West Third street, was arrested by Policemen Kelly and O'Connor on Sunday. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon.

Mr. Zilber, a bartender in a saloon at 100 West Third street, was arrested by Policemen Kelly and O'Connor on Sunday. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon.

Mr. Zilber, a bartender in a saloon at 100 West Third street, was arrested by Policemen Kelly and O'Connor on Sunday. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon.

Mr. Zilber, a bartender in a saloon at 100 West Third street, was arrested by Policemen Kelly and O'Connor on Sunday. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon.

Mr. Zilber, a bartender in a saloon at 100 West Third street, was arrested by Policemen Kelly and O'Connor on Sunday. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon.

Mr. Zilber, a bartender in a saloon at 100 West Third street, was arrested by Policemen Kelly and O'Connor on Sunday. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon.

Mr. Zilber, a bartender in a saloon at 100 West Third street, was arrested by Policemen Kelly and O'Connor on Sunday. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon.

Mr. Zilber, a bartender in a saloon at 100 West Third street, was arrested by Policemen Kelly and O'Connor on Sunday. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon.

Mr. Zilber, a bartender in a saloon at 100 West Third street, was arrested by Policemen Kelly and O'Connor on Sunday. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon.

Mr. Zilber, a bartender in a saloon at 100 West Third street, was arrested by Policemen Kelly and O'Connor on Sunday. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon.

Mr. Zilber, a bartender in a saloon at 100 West Third street, was arrested by Policemen Kelly and O'Connor on Sunday. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon.

Mr. Zilber, a bartender in a saloon at 100 West Third street, was arrested by Policemen Kelly and O'Connor on Sunday. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon.

Mr. Zilber, a bartender in a saloon at 100 West Third street, was arrested by Policemen Kelly and O'Connor on Sunday. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon.

Mr. Zilber, a bartender in a saloon at 100 West Third street, was arrested by Policemen Kelly and O'Connor on Sunday. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon.

Mr. Zilber, a bartender in a saloon at 100 West Third street, was arrested by Policemen Kelly and O'Connor on Sunday. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon.

Mr. Zilber, a bartender in a saloon at 100 West Third street, was arrested by Policemen Kelly and O'Connor on Sunday. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon.

Mr. Zilber, a bartender in a saloon at 100 West Third street, was arrested by Policemen Kelly and O'Connor on Sunday. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon.

Mr. Zilber, a bartender in a saloon at 100 West Third street, was arrested by Policemen Kelly and O'Connor on Sunday. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon.

Mr. Zilber, a bartender in a saloon at 100 West Third street, was arrested by Policemen Kelly and O'Connor on Sunday. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon.

Mr. Zilber, a bartender in a saloon at 100 West Third street, was arrested by Policemen Kelly and O'Connor on Sunday. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon. They were charged with selling beer at the saloon.

A SMALL HARRISON BOOM.

DEVISED TO STEAL THE TIDE OF MCKINLEYISM.

Quay Hazy Planning a Combination Against the Man from Ohio—McKinley's Opposition at Home—Speaker Reed's Campaign Is In Jeopardy by His "Do-Nothing" Policy.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—A Republican combination appears to be at the Capitol to-day wearing a Harrison boom. He was seen in conference with Senator Quay later in the day, and the report was at once put in circulation that the anti-McKinley managers have decided to take up the ex-President as a candidate for the Presidency. In order to let the wind out of the McKinley boom, inquiry developed the fact that well-known anti-McKinley men are urging upon the leaders the advisability of concentrating the anti-McKinley strength on Harrison as the only man who can now prevent McKinley's nomination.

For some reason Senator Quay, who will control the Pennsylvania vote in the St. Louis Convention more absolutely than any other political manager will control the vote of his State, is bitterly opposed to McKinley, not only as a Presidential candidate, but as a Republican, a politician, and a man. Mr. Quay is still doing his campaign for the Presidency. He is busy several hours each day conferring with members of Congress and other Republicans as to how a combination can be made after McKinley's nomination shall have been demonstrated to be impossible.

Col. A. C. Conger of Ohio, ex-Chairman of the National Committee, who is in the State, who was here a week ago, returned to-day and had a long talk with Senator Quay. Col. Conger is known to be a strong anti-McKinley man, but he does not endorse the statements so widely made that McKinley will fail to get the solid vote of Ohio on the first ballot. In his estimate of the strength of the various candidates which he sent out last night, Quinlan gives to McKinley only 38 of the 40 votes of the State, but Col. Conger thinks there is no doubt that he will get them all, at least for a ballot or two. He says it is perfectly safe to say that there are not more than 100,000 votes in Ohio for McKinley.

The delegation who are anti-McKinley men and known to be such, and he thinks they may be ready to break if McKinley is not nominated on the second or third ballot. But they will be loyal to start with, he says, and ought to be so counted in all estimates as to how the Ohio delegates will stand when the Convention meets in St. Louis.

Col. Conger is one of those Republicans who think that Harrison is the only man with whom the combination can defeat McKinley, and in his talk with Senator Quay this afternoon he urged upon him the wisdom of considering the possibility of a combination with McKinley.

Mr. Quay, however, is still more antagonistic to Harrison than to McKinley, and it is understood that he is looking for a candidate upon the movement to make Harrison a candidate in spite of himself. The anti-McKinley managers are looking to Illinois to stop the rush of McKinley's supporters, and they are looking for a candidate upon the movement to make Harrison a candidate in spite of himself. The anti-McKinley managers are looking to Illinois to stop the rush of McKinley's supporters, and they are looking for a candidate upon the movement to make Harrison a candidate in spite of himself.

Block Island harbor, Rhode Island, $3,000; Yellow Mill Pond, Connecticut, channel 12 feet deep and 200 feet wide, $10,000; dredging harbor, Connecticut, $6,000; improving deep channel at Baltimore to 30 feet, $400,000; deep water harbor at Santa Monica, Cal., $100,000, with a provision for a continuous contract aggregating $2,000,000, and provided that the contractor shall be allowed to use the money the Southern Pacific Railroad Company shall file with the Secretary of War an agreement to use the money for the improvement of the harbor.

Block Island harbor, Rhode Island, $3,000; Yellow Mill Pond, Connecticut, channel 12 feet deep and 200 feet wide, $10,000; dredging harbor, Connecticut, $6,000; improving deep channel at Baltimore to 30 feet, $400,000; deep water harbor at Santa Monica, Cal., $100,000, with a provision for a continuous contract aggregating $2,000,000, and provided that the contractor shall be allowed to use the money the Southern Pacific Railroad Company shall file with the Secretary of War an agreement to use the money for the improvement of the harbor.

Block Island harbor, Rhode Island, $3,000; Yellow Mill Pond, Connecticut, channel 12 feet deep and 200 feet wide, $10,000; dredging harbor, Connecticut, $6,000; improving deep channel at Baltimore to 30 feet, $400,000; deep water harbor at Santa Monica, Cal., $100,000, with a provision for a continuous contract aggregating $2,000,000, and provided that the contractor shall be allowed to use the money the Southern Pacific Railroad Company shall file with the Secretary of War an agreement to use the money for the improvement of the harbor.

Block Island harbor, Rhode Island, $3,000; Yellow Mill Pond, Connecticut, channel 12 feet deep and 200 feet wide, $10,000; dredging harbor, Connecticut, $6,000; improving deep channel at Baltimore to 30 feet, $400,000; deep water harbor at Santa Monica, Cal., $100,000, with a provision for a continuous contract aggregating $2,000,000, and provided that the contractor shall be allowed to use the money the Southern Pacific Railroad Company shall file with the Secretary of War an agreement to use the money for the improvement of the harbor.

Block Island harbor, Rhode Island, $3,000; Yellow Mill Pond, Connecticut, channel 12 feet deep and 200 feet wide, $10,000; dredging harbor, Connecticut, $6,000; improving deep channel at Baltimore to 30 feet, $400,000; deep water harbor at Santa Monica, Cal., $100,000, with a provision for a continuous contract aggregating $2,000,000, and provided that the contractor shall be allowed to use the money the Southern Pacific Railroad Company shall file with the Secretary of War an agreement to use the money for the improvement of the harbor.

Block Island harbor, Rhode Island, $3,000; Yellow Mill Pond, Connecticut, channel 12 feet deep and 200 feet wide, $10,000; dredging harbor, Connecticut, $6,000; improving deep channel at Baltimore to 30 feet, $400,000; deep water harbor at Santa Monica, Cal., $100,000, with a provision for a continuous contract aggregating $2,000,000, and provided that the contractor shall be allowed to use the money the Southern Pacific Railroad Company shall file with the Secretary of War an agreement to use the money for the improvement of the harbor.

Block Island harbor, Rhode Island, $3,000; Yellow Mill Pond, Connecticut, channel 12 feet deep and 200 feet wide, $10,000; dredging harbor, Connecticut, $6,000; improving deep channel at Baltimore to 30 feet, $400,000; deep water harbor at Santa Monica, Cal., $100,000, with a provision for a continuous contract aggregating $2,000,000, and provided that the contractor shall be allowed to use the money the Southern Pacific Railroad Company shall file with the Secretary of War an agreement to use the money for the improvement of the harbor.

Block Island harbor, Rhode Island, $3,000; Yellow Mill Pond, Connecticut, channel 12 feet deep and 200 feet wide, $10,000; dredging harbor, Connecticut, $6,000; improving deep channel at Baltimore to 30 feet, $400,000; deep water harbor at Santa Monica, Cal., $100,000, with a provision for a continuous contract aggregating $2,000,000, and provided that the contractor shall be allowed to use the money the Southern Pacific Railroad Company shall file with the Secretary of War an agreement to use the money for the improvement of the harbor.

Block Island harbor, Rhode Island, $3,000; Yellow Mill Pond, Connecticut, channel 12 feet deep and 200 feet wide, $10,000; dredging harbor, Connecticut, $6,000; improving deep channel at Baltimore to 30 feet, $400,000; deep water harbor at Santa Monica, Cal., $100,000, with a provision for a continuous contract aggregating $2,000,000, and provided that the contractor shall be allowed to use the money the Southern Pacific Railroad Company shall file with the Secretary of War an agreement to use the money for the improvement of the harbor.

Block Island harbor, Rhode Island, $3,000; Yellow Mill Pond, Connecticut, channel 12 feet deep and 200 feet wide, $10,000; dredging harbor, Connecticut, $6,000; improving deep channel at Baltimore to 30 feet, $400,000; deep water harbor at Santa Monica, Cal., $100,000, with a provision for a continuous contract aggregating $2,000,000, and provided that the contractor shall be allowed to use the money the Southern Pacific Railroad Company shall file with the Secretary of War an agreement to use the money for the improvement of the harbor.

Block Island harbor, Rhode Island, $3,000; Yellow Mill Pond, Connecticut, channel 12 feet deep and 200 feet wide, $10,000; dredging harbor, Connecticut, $6,000; improving deep channel at Baltimore to 30 feet, $400,000; deep water harbor at Santa Monica, Cal., $100,000, with a provision for a continuous contract aggregating $2,000,000, and provided that the contractor shall be allowed to use the money the Southern Pacific Railroad Company shall file with the Secretary of War an agreement to use the money for the improvement of the harbor.

Block Island harbor, Rhode Island, $3,000; Yellow Mill Pond, Connecticut, channel 12 feet deep and 200 feet wide, $10,000; dredging harbor, Connecticut, $6,000; improving deep channel at Baltimore to 30 feet, $400,000; deep water harbor at Santa Monica, Cal., $100,000, with a provision for a continuous contract aggregating $2,000,000, and provided that the contractor shall be allowed to use the money the Southern Pacific Railroad Company shall file with the Secretary of War an agreement to use the money for the improvement of the harbor.

Block Island harbor, Rhode Island, $3,000; Yellow Mill Pond, Connecticut, channel 12 feet deep and 200 feet wide, $10,000; dredging harbor, Connecticut, $6,000; improving deep channel at Baltimore to 30 feet, $400,000; deep water harbor at Santa Monica, Cal., $100,000, with a provision for a continuous contract aggregating $2,000,000, and provided that the contractor shall be allowed to use the money the Southern Pacific Railroad Company shall file with the Secretary of War an agreement to use the money for the improvement of the harbor.

Block Island harbor, Rhode Island, $3,000; Yellow Mill Pond, Connecticut, channel 12 feet deep and 200 feet wide, $10,000; dredging harbor, Connecticut, $6,000; improving deep channel at Baltimore to 30 feet, $400,000; deep water harbor at Santa Monica, Cal., $100,000, with a provision for a continuous contract aggregating $2,000,000, and provided that the contractor shall be allowed to use the money the Southern Pacific Railroad Company shall file with the Secretary of War an agreement to use the money for the improvement of the harbor.

Block Island harbor, Rhode Island, $3,000; Yellow Mill Pond, Connecticut, channel 12 feet deep and 200 feet wide, $10,000; dredging harbor, Connecticut, $6,000; improving deep channel at Baltimore to 30 feet, $400,000; deep water harbor at Santa Monica, Cal., $100,000, with a provision for a continuous contract aggregating $2,000,000, and provided that the contractor shall be allowed to use the money the Southern Pacific Railroad Company shall file with the Secretary of War an agreement to use the money for the improvement of the harbor.

Block Island harbor, Rhode Island, $3,000; Yellow Mill Pond, Connecticut, channel 12 feet deep and 200 feet wide, $10,000; dredging harbor, Connecticut, $6,000; improving deep channel at Baltimore to 30 feet, $400,000; deep water harbor at Santa Monica, Cal., $100,000, with a provision for a continuous contract aggregating $2,000,000, and provided that the contractor shall be allowed to use the money the Southern Pacific Railroad Company shall file with the Secretary of War an agreement to use the money for the improvement of the harbor.

Block Island harbor, Rhode Island, $3,000; Yellow Mill Pond, Connecticut, channel 12 feet deep and 200 feet wide, $10,000; dredging harbor, Connecticut, $6,000; improving deep channel at Baltimore to 30 feet, $400,000; deep water harbor at Santa Monica, Cal., $100,000, with a provision for a continuous contract aggregating $2,000,000, and provided that the contractor shall be allowed to use the money the Southern Pacific Railroad Company shall file with the Secretary of War an agreement to use the money for the improvement of the harbor.

Block Island harbor, Rhode Island, $3,000; Yellow Mill Pond, Connecticut, channel 12 feet deep and 200 feet wide, $10,000; dredging harbor, Connecticut, $6,000; improving deep channel at Baltimore to 30 feet, $400,000; deep water harbor at Santa Monica, Cal., $100,000, with a provision for a continuous contract aggregating $2,000,000, and provided that the contractor shall be allowed to use the money the Southern Pacific Railroad Company shall file with the Secretary of War an agreement to use the money for the improvement of the harbor.

Block Island harbor, Rhode Island, $3,000; Yellow Mill Pond, Connecticut, channel 12 feet deep and 200 feet wide, $10,000; dredging harbor, Connecticut, $6,000; improving deep channel at Baltimore to 30 feet, $400,000; deep water harbor at Santa Monica, Cal., $100,000, with a provision for a continuous contract aggregating $2,000,000, and provided that the